TERMS USED IN THE QUESTIONNAIRE

A number of terms are used throughout the questionnaire. Definitions are provided below. Please note that these definitions are exclusively intended to assist in clarifying the terms used in this questionnaire.

- Advisory body: Some NCPs have an advisory body which can be consulted by the NCP on a range of activities and issues on which it provides advice. Advisory bodies can include representatives from trade unions, NGOs, business and/or academia, along with representatives of other government ministries or agencies. They do not normally form part of the NCP and do not have decision-making power on accepting or concluding specific instances.
- Dedicated budget: A budget that is allocated to the NCP on a regular basis (e.g. every year) to carry out its functions and activities.
- Independent NCP: An independent NCP is one whose members do not belong to a government administration, although generally an independent NCP will be supported by a secretariat based in a government administration.
- Oversight body: Some NCPs have an oversight body, which has a monitoring role, for example on whether the NCP has followed its own rules of procedures. They can include representatives from trade unions, NGOs, business and/or academia, along with representatives of other government ministries or agencies. They do not normally form part of the NCP and do not have decision-making power on accepting or concluding specific instances.
- Stakeholder meeting: A stakeholder meeting is a meeting organised by the NCP to meet with stakeholders, including trade unions, NGOs and the business community that are not part of the structure of the NCP (i.e. they are not members of the NCP, nor present on advisory or oversight bodies).

REPORTING PERIOD

The reporting period for this questionnaire is from 1 January to 31 December 2018.

SUBMISSION

The questionnaire should be completed by using this word document and sent by email to: RBC@oecd.org copying nicolas.hachez@oecd.org and kathryn.dovey@oecd.org by 21 January 2019.

⁴ Paragraph 37 of the Commentary on the Implementation Procedures of the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises: "Statements and reports on the results of the proceedings made publicly available by the NCPs could be relevant to the administration of government programmes and policies. In order to foster policy coherence, NCPs are encouraged to inform these government agencies of their statements and reports when they are known by the NCP to be relevant to a specific agency's policies and programmes [...]."

group: a proposal was worked on during 2018 together with the members of the committee, which in January 2019 was finally cancelled by the Secretariat for Human Rights, which assumes the same month the transfer of the NAP from this Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The Subsecretariat will create this multi-stakeholder advisory group this year, which is expected to actively coordinate its roles with those of the NCP committee. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - A proposal for joint work with government entities to ensure the coherence of strategic actions and support: work in progress, with ministries identified as priorities for the ongoing commitments of this NCP, bilaterally and as a committee: Ministry of Mining, Energy, Subsecretariat for Human Rights, National Consumer Service, Ministry of Labour. - Joint work to achieve convergent objectives with the Export Promotion Agency (PROCHILE) and the Office of Agrarian Studies and Policies (ODEPA): PROCHILE, located in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, is in the process of implementing improvements to its bidding bases and promotional activities with companies; ODEPA leads the sustainability group of the public-private agro-export council, with participation in the OECD FAO Guidance. This NCP is supporting the fulfilment of their respective commitments, joining the activities and networks of relevant actors in the agricultural business sector, and providing guidance for the dissemination of OECD instruments. It is proposed to generate a common plan of dissemination activities in regions, with the support of PROCHILE's regional offices. - Collaboration with the National Institute of Human Rights to carry out dissemination activities in regions, within the framework of the MOU signed: two dissemination activities were carried out in the region of Los Ríos, in conjunction with a representative of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights. If yes, did the NCP communicate public statements on specific instances to public procurement officials during the year 2018?	Choose an item.

59. Please provide any other relevant information on how your government is including responsible business conduct considerations into the public procurement process.	Click here to enter text.
--	---------------------------

G. IMPACT AND FUTURE WORK
60. Does the NCP have a promotional plan for the coming year (2019)?	Yes
61. Has the NCP faced any particular challenge(s) it would like to highlight this year?	The current challenge is to provide at least one full-time professional officer who can assist the NCP in fulfilling the various ongoing commitments.
Additional comments on the section Impact and future work: The Chilean NCP has important a number of key players supporting its management, and there is sufficient interest among these actors that the OECD peer review's recommendations are properly addressed and taken advantage of. This is clearly reflected in the recent work of the mirror committee (civil society committee). In the short and medium term, the main challenge remains to make the Guidelines and the NCP known, especially at the government level, and then to promote alliances for policy coherence. Also, strengthen the NCP's institutionality, by providing it with the necessary resources.
